Moderate track

This short walk from Leura descends many steps as it heads down to the top of the escarpment, overlooking the Jamison Valley. The lookout is fenced and there is an bench seat to enjoy the view from. Let us begin by acknowledging the Dharug & Gundungurra people, Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.

Prince Henry Cliff Walk

Prince Henry Cliff Walk

Getting started: From Olympian Parade (next to Leuralla Public Gardens Amphitheatre), this walk follows the 'Olympian Rock' sign along the wide trail (Olympian Pl), alongside the white fence (to the left). Soon the walk starts heading down a long set of concrete stairs to the intersection with the Prince Henry Cliff Walk at Olympian Rock (and a 'Blue Moutains National Park' sign).

Turn around here and retrace the main route for 155 m to get back to the start.

"Olympian Rock".

Start.

Find the park at the start.

Then to find the "Leura parking".

After another 115 m continue straight.

After another 15 m come to "Olympian Lookout".

Olympian Lookout is a fenced lookout, just off the Prince Henry Cliff Walk, near Olympian Pde in Leura. The lookout is on a sloped, natural sandstone surface and has some steps cut to help improve access. The lookout is right at the edge of the cliff and provides a great view across the Jamison Valley, out to Mount Solitary. The 'back' of the Three Sisters, and also Narrow Neck, are both visible on the right, and Sublime Point on the left.
