Hard track

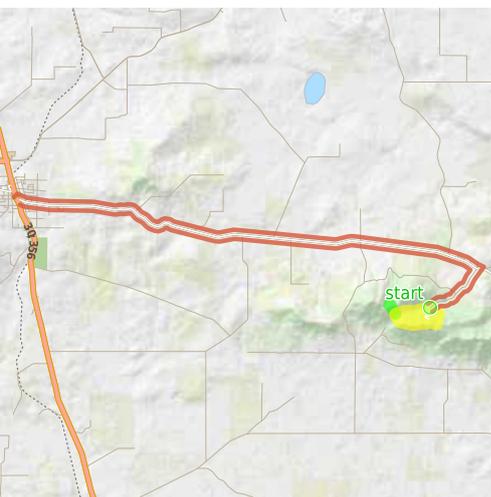

Starting from the Tree-in-the-Rock day-use area at the end of Bolganup Road, Porongurup National Park, this walk takes you on a circuit via the Nancy Peak Walk and Wansbrough Walk. This walk takes you through a magical forest, past mossy boulders and fallen trees. Once you reach the granite plateau of Devil's Slide, stop for a while and soak in the stunning panoramic views. There are several interpretive panels along this walk, some of which provide interesting information about the formation of the Porongurups and the neighbouring Stirlings. Once back at the day-use area you can enjoy a nice picnic. There are barbecues, picnic tables and toilet facilities. Please note that this trail is not ideal in wet weather, as the granite sections can become very slippery. Let us begin by acknowledging the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.
