

Falcon Falls Walking Track (Wiradjuri Country)

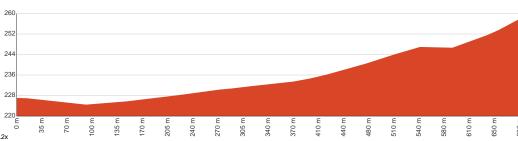

Starting from Spring Hill Picnic Area, this return walk in Cocoparra National Park will take you through white cypress pine woodland along to Falcon Falls. If you come between June to December you'll see peregrine falcons nesting there. Let us begin by acknowledging the Wiradjuri people, Traditional Custodians of the land on which we travel today, and pay our respects to their Elders past and present.

Class 4 of 6 Rough track, where fallen trees and other obstacles are likely
Quality of track	Formed track, with some branches and other obstacles (3/6)
Gradient	Gentle hills with occasional steps (2/6)

Getting to the start: From Burley Griffin Way, B94

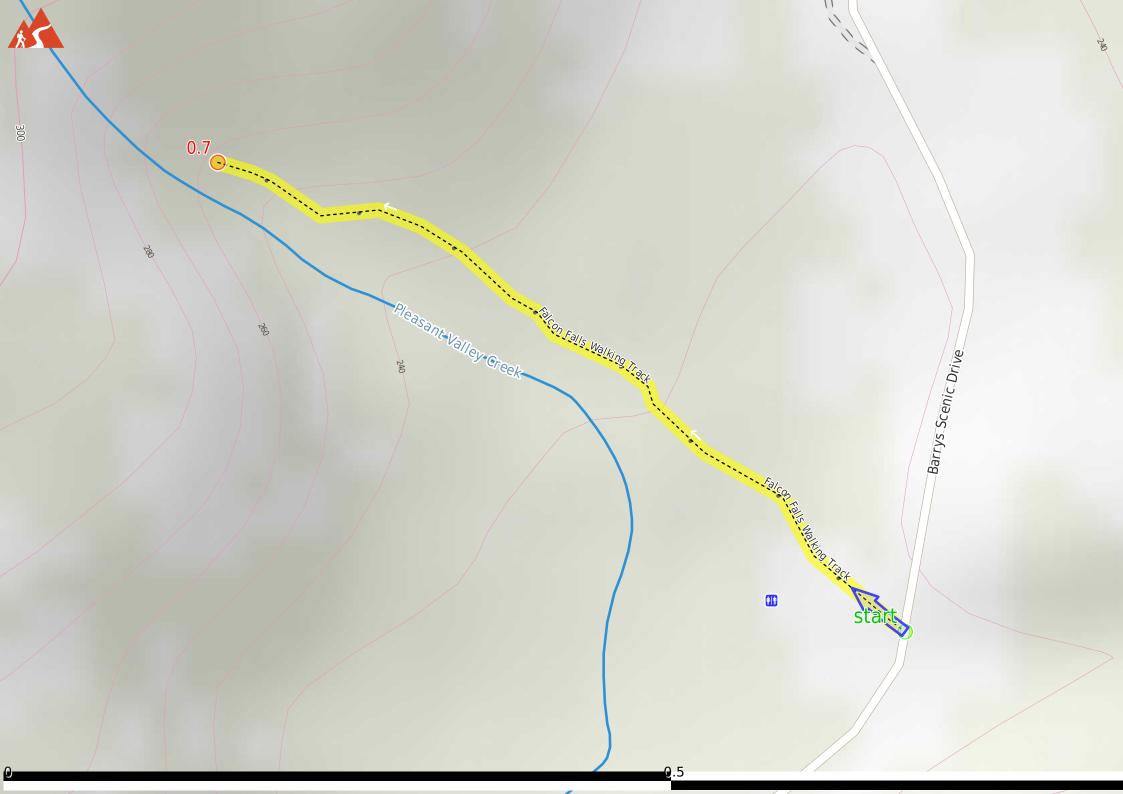

- Turn on to Whitton Stock Route Road then drive for 3.9 km
- Turn slight right onto Barrys Scenic Drive and drive for another 6.5 km

Before you start any journey ensure you;

- Tell someone you trust where you are going and what to do if you are late returning
- · Have adequate equipment, supplies, skills & knowledge to undertake this journey safely
- Consider weather forecasts, park/track closures & fire dangers
- Can respond to emergencies & call for help at any point
- · Are healthy and fit enough for this journey

If not, change plans and stay safe. It is okay to delay and ask people for help.

After 275 m pass the BBQ (10 m on your left).

After another 6 m pass the toilet (60 m on your left).

Continue another 400 m to find the end. Then turn around here and retrace the main route for 680 m to get back to the start.

About 70 m past the end is "Falcon Falls".
